Fraud Notice

"Any person who knowingly presents false information in an application for insurance or viatical settlement contract is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be subject to fines or confinement in prison, or both."

Disclosure Notice and Advice to Policy Owner and Insured

. Definitions: “Life Insurance Producer”: “Negotiates a Viatical Settlement on the behalf of the viator.”; “Viatical Settlement Provider”: “means a person, other than a viator, who enters into or effectuates a viatical settlement contract.”; “Viator”: “means the owner of a policy who is a resident of this state and who enters into or seeks to enter into a viatical settlement contract.”

2. Some or all of the proceeds of your viatical settlement contract may be taxable under federal income tax and state franchise and income tax laws. You should consult a professional tax advisor.
3. The receipt of the proceeds of a viatical settlement contract may affect your eligibility to receive Medicaid or other government benefits or entitlements. Advice on such effects should be obtained from the appropriate government agencies.
4. Stonehill Settlements, Inc. will act as a broker of a Viatical Settlement contract between the Viator and Viatical Settlement Provider as it pertains to the sale of the life insurance policy referenced herein. Stonehill Settlements, Inc. will only accept Life Viatical Settlement Policy Evaluation and Application Forms submitted by Life Insurance Producers licensed to transact Viatical Settlements in the state of Colorado.
5. Stonehill Settlements, Inc. will be compensated. The viatical settlement provider, not the viator, will compensate Stonehill Settlements, Inc. based on a formula that is a percentage of the face value of the life insurance policy. For example: compensation for a $100,000 policy could be: $8\% \times $100,000$ (face value) = $8,000.00. Compensation can include, but is not limited to, bonuses, overrides or other funds in addition to Life Insurance Producer commissions. Compensation paid by the Viatical Settlement Provider to Stonehill Settlements, Inc. will not exceed 6%.
6. There may be possible alternative to a viatical settlement contract. This may include the option of an accelerated death benefit or policy loans offered by your life insurance company. You are advised to consult a financial advisor, certified public accountant or an attorney regarding these potential alternatives.
7. The name, business address, and phone number of the entity that serves as independent third-party escrow agent that disburses your viatical settlement proceeds is: [Furnished at your request]. You may, if you wish, inspect or receive a copy of the escrow agreement or documents for your viatical settlement from the escrow Life Insurance Producer.
8. Once you have received your proceeds from the sale of your life insurance policy, you will have thirty (30) days from the date of the viatical settlement contract or fifteen (15) days from receipt of the viatical settlement proceeds, whichever is earlier, in which to rescind the transaction. If the insured dies during the rescission period, the viatical settlement contract shall be deemed rescinded, subject to repayment of all viatical settlement proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest to the viatical settlement provider. Funds will be sent to you within three (3) business days after the insurer or group administrator’s acknowledgment that ownership of the viaticated policy or interest in the certificate has been transferred and the beneficiary has been designated.

9. Your entering into a viatical settlement contract may cause other rights or benefits, including conversion rights and waiver of premium benefits that may exist under the policy, to be forfeited by the viator. Assistance should be sought from an independent financial advisor.

10. Proceeds of the viatical settlement contract could be subject to the claims of creditors.

11. Stonehill Settlements, Inc. and its Principals have no affiliation with any Settlement Provider Company which could potentially acquire your insurance policy.

12. The insured may be contacted by the viatical settlement provider or its authorized representative for the purpose of determining the insured's health status. This contact will be limited to once every three (3) months if the insured has a life expectancy of more than one year, and no more than once per month if the insured has a life expectancy of one year or less.

13. All medical, financial or personal information solicited or obtained by a viatical settlement provider or a life insurance producer about an insured, including the insured's identity or the identity of family members, a spouse or significant other may be disclosed as necessary to effect the viatical settlement contract between the viator and the viatical settlement provider. If you are asked to provide this information, you will be asked to consent to the disclosure. The information may be provided to someone who buys the policy or provides funds for the purchase. You may be asked to renew your permission to share information every two years.

Questions to Ask

- Do I still need life insurance protection?
- If I sell my policy, how do they decide how much cash I get?
- Is this an employer or other group policy? If so, do I need permission to sell it?
- If I sell my policy, who will be the legal owner?
- Do I need the advice of a tax or estate planning advisor before I decide to sell my policy?
- Who will have specific information about me, my family or my health status?

Your state insurance department may have a list of life settlement providers and producers that are licensed to do business in the state. Contact them to make sure yours are on the list.

Always Check with Your State

Contact your state insurance or securities departments to learn about the issues and risks of life settlements if:

- you're considering selling your life insurance policy;
- you're asked to sell your life insurance policy and your health hasn't changed since you bought the policy;
- you're asked to buy a new life insurance policy and immediately sell it for cash.

Buying a Life Insurance Policy?

If you're interested in buying a life insurance policy as an investment, contact your state securities department before you make a decision.

Selling Your Life Insurance Policy

Understanding Life Settlements

What is a Life Settlement?

A life settlement is the sale of a life insurance policy to a third party. The owner of the life insurance policy sells the policy for an immediate cash benefit.

The buyer (the life settlement provider) becomes the new owner of the life insurance policy, pays future premiums, and collects the death benefit when the insured dies.

At one time, most life settlements were from people with a life-threatening illness. Now, individuals who are not facing a health crisis may sell their life insurance policies to get cash.

Your state insurance department and the National Association of Insurance Commissioners want you to have the facts before you sell your life insurance policy. This brochure provides some of that information, but it is only a starting point. Consult your own professional financial advisor, attorney, or accountant to help you decide if this is the most suitable arrangement for you.

Consider Your Options

If you're selling your policy to get cash to pay expenses, check all of your options. You may find a way to get more cash from your life insurance policy.

1. Ask your insurance agent or company if you have any cash value in your life insurance policy. You may be able to use some of the cash value to meet your immediate needs and keep your policy in force for your beneficiaries. You may also be able to use the cash value as security for a loan from a financial institution.
2. Find out if your life insurance policy has an accelerated death benefit. An accelerated death benefit typically pays some of the policy's death benefit before the insured dies. It may be a way for you to get cash from a policy without selling it to a third party.

Consumer tips

- Comparison shop. Get quotes from several companies to make sure you have a competitive offer.
- Find out the tax implications. Not all proceeds received from the sale of your life insurance policy are tax free.
- It's important to know that any of your creditors could claim your cash settlement.
- Find out if you will lose any public assistance benefits such as food stamps or Medicaid if you get a cash settlement.
- The buyer of your policy can periodically ask you about your health status. The buyer is required to give you a privacy notice outlining who will get this personal information. Be sure to read it.
- Check all application forms for accuracy, especially your medical history. All questions must be answered truthfully and completely.
- Make sure the life settlement provider agrees to put your settlement proceeds into an independent escrow account to protect your funds during the transfer.
- Find out if you have the right to change your mind about the settlement AFTER you get the money. If so, how many days do you have to reconsider and return the money?
