Viator Disclosure Form

A viatical settlement broker is deemed to represent only the viator's interests and shall owe a fiduciary duty to the viator to act according to the viator's instructions and in the viator's best interests. You should carefully read the following information and seek financial, insurance, tax and other advice where appropriate.

1. There are possible alternatives to viatical settlement contracts, including any accelerated death benefits or policy loans offered by the issuer of the policy. Your insurance policy provides financial protection to your beneficiaries. If you sell your policy to a viatical settlement provider, your beneficiaries will no longer have that protection. Before you sell your policy, you should consider whether that protection is needed. Other financial options may be available to you. Consult your financial advisor or insurance company for more information.
2. Some or all of the proceeds of a viatical settlement may be subject to federal income taxation and state franchise and income taxes, and that assistance should be sought from a professional tax advisor.
3. Proceeds of a viatical settlement contract could be subject to the claims of creditors.
4. Receipt of the proceeds from a viatical settlement may adversely affect the viator's eligibility for medical assistance or other government benefits or entitlements, and advice should be obtained from the appropriate government agencies.
5. The viator has the right to rescind a viatical settlement for fifteen (15) calendar days after the viator receives the viatical settlement proceeds or thirty (30) calendar days after execution of the contract. If the insured dies during the rescission period, the viatical settlement contract shall be deemed to have been rescinded, subject to repayment of all viatical settlement proceeds to the viatical settlement company.
6. Funds will be sent to the viator within two (2) business days after the viatical settlement provider has received written acknowledgment from the insurer or group administrator that ownership of the policy or interest in the certificate has been transferred and that the beneficiary has been designated pursuant to the viatical settlement contract.
7. Entering into a viatical settlement contract may cause other rights or benefits, including conversion rights and waiver of premium benefits that may exist under the policy or certificate of a group policy to be forfeited by the viator. Assistance should be sought from a professional financial advisor.
8. Entering into a viatical settlement could limit the insured's ability to purchase life insurance in the future because there is a limit to how much coverage insurers will issue on one life. This can also effect the accidental death or accidental death and dismemberment benefits to the beneficiaries. If provided can effect disability income or loss of income protection and family, spousal, or children's riders or benefits, and any other comparable coverage for a life other than the insured's.
9. Following execution of a viatical settlement contract, the insured may be contacted for the purpose of determining the insured's health status and to confirm the insured's residential or business street address and telephone number. This contact shall be limited to once every three (3) months if the insured has a life expectancy of more than one (1) year, and no more than once per month if the insured has a life expectancy of one (1) year or less. All such contacts shall be made only by a viatical settlement provider licensed in the state in which the viator resided at the time of the viatical settlement contract or by the authorized representative of a duly licensed viatical settlement provider. Contacts made by the provider with the insured will be made by mail unless the parties agree to another method of contact within the contract.

Viators Initials _____

10. Stonehill Settlements Inc. will be compensated. The viatical settlement provider, not the viator, will compensate Stonehill Settlements Inc. based on a formula that is a percentage of the face value of the life insurance policy. For example: compensation for a $100,000 policy could be: 8% x $100,000 (face value) = $8,000.00. Compensation can include, but is not limited to, bonuses, overrides or other funds in addition to Life Insurance Producer commissions.

11. All medical, financial, or personal information solicited or obtained by a viatical settlement provider or viatical Settlement broker about an insured, including the insured’s identity or the identity of family members, a spouse or a significant other may be disclosed as necessary to effect the viatical settlement between the viator and the viatical settlement provider. If you are asked to provide this information, you will be asked to consent to the disclosure. The information needed may be in response to an investigation or examination by the commissioner or other governmental officer or agency; or in connection with a transfer of the contract or policy to another licensed provider or entity that provides financing to the contract under written agreement with the provider. The information may be provided to someone who buys the policy or provides funds for the purchase. You may be asked to renew your permission to share information every two years.

Any person who knowingly presents false information in an application for insurance, viatical settlement contract, or a viatical settlement purchase agreement is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in prison.

VIATOR’S ACKNOWLEDGMENT: I have read and fully understand the Viator disclosure form to which this acknowledgement is attached, and the enclosed Stonehill Settlements Inc.. Privacy Policy and Notice of Informational Practices. A copy of these required written disclosures have been received and read by the Insured and by me. Questions to Ask

- Do I still need life insurance protection?
- If I sell my policy, how do they decide how much cash I get?
- Is this an employer or other group policy? If so, do I need permission to sell it?
- If I sell my policy, who will be the legal owner?
- Do I need the advice of a tax or estate planning advisor before I decide to sell my policy?
- Who will have specific information about me, my family or my health status?
- After I sell my policy, can it be resold by the buyer?

Your state insurance department may have a list of life settlement providers and producers that are licensed to do business in the state. Contact them to make sure yours are on the list.

Always Check with Your State

Contact your state insurance or securities departments to learn about the issues and risks of life settlements if:

- you're considering selling your life insurance policy;
- you're asked to sell your life insurance policy and your health hasn't changed since you bought the policy;
- you're asked to buy a new life insurance policy and immediately sell it for cash.

Buying a Life Insurance Policy?

If you're interested in buying a life insurance policy as an investment, contact your state securities department before you make a decision.

Selling Your Life Insurance Policy

Understanding Life Settlements

What is a Life Settlement?

A life settlement is the sale of a life insurance policy to a third party. The owner of the life insurance policy sells the policy for an immediate cash benefit.

The buyer (the life settlement provider) becomes the new owner of the life insurance policy, pays future premiums, and collects the death benefit when the insured dies.

At one time, most life settlements were from people with a life-threatening illness. Now, individuals who are not facing a health crisis may sell their life insurance policies to get cash.

Your state insurance department and the National Association of Insurance Commissioners want you to have the facts before you sell your life insurance policy. This brochure provides some of that information, but it is only a starting point. Consult your own professional financial advisor, attorney, or accountant to help you decide if this is the most suitable arrangement for you.

Consider Your Options

If you're selling your policy to get cash to pay expenses, check all of your options. You may find a way to get more cash from your life insurance policy.

1. Ask your insurance agent or company if you have any cash value in your life insurance policy. You may be able to use some of the cash value to meet your immediate needs and keep your policy in force for your beneficiaries. You may also be able to use the cash value as security for a loan from a financial institution.
2. Find out if your life insurance policy has an accelerated death benefit. An accelerated death benefit typically pays some of the policy's death benefit before the insured dies. It may be a way for you to get cash from a policy without selling it to a third party.

Consumer tips

- Comparison shop. Get quotes from several companies to make sure you have a competitive offer.
- Find out the tax implications. Not all proceeds received from the sale of your life insurance policy are tax free.
- It's important to know that any of your creditors could claim your cash settlement.
- Find out if you will lose any public assistance benefits such as food stamps or Medicaid if you get a cash settlement.
- The buyer of your policy can periodically ask you about your health status. The buyer is required to give you a privacy notice outlining who will get this personal information. Be sure to read it.
- Check all application forms for accuracy, especially your medical history. All questions must be answered truthfully and completely.
- Make sure the life settlement provider agrees to put your settlement proceeds into an independent escrow account to protect your funds during the transfer.
- Find out if you have the right to change your mind about the settlement AFTER you get the money. If so, how many days do you have to reconsider and return the money?
